Special Events

Starting February 22, 2005

AFL-CIO
Union Community Activist Network
"UCAN TRAINING"

Wish your union members better understood…..

- The value of union membership?
- The history of organized labor?
- Why the knowledge of issues is important to workers?
- How community services benefits us all?

Well, now they will – With the UCAN training Program!

The United Labor Agency and the Greater Hartford Central Labor Council are sponsoring:

Union Community Activist Network Training.

Highlights include:

- Developing a stronger Union referral link
- Learning about our network of community agencies

Workers' Compensation
Social Security
Unemployment Compensation
Drug, Alcohol & Gambling Abuse
And more

Our Goal: Forming alliances that strengthen the labor movement by Understanding the power of community involvement and Building a more caring community.

Here's the scoop on UCAN training classes:

They are held on Tuesday & Thursday
From 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
On February 22, 2005 to March 17, 2005 at the Greater Hartford Central Labor Council / United Labor Agency, 77 Huyshope Ave, 2nd Floor, Room 210, Hartford, CT 06106
The cost is $45.00 per person

Time is running out – Sign Up NOW!!!! Class size is limited and is filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.… Contact the ULA for more information: Mary McNeff 860/727-9301. Thank you…